This was clearly done because it was the only year in which Mr. Roosevelt took any action in the Harvester case. As your year in which Mr. Roosevelt took any settion in the Harvester case. As your compaign is making a specialty just now of publishing correspondence, personal and otherwise, on various subjects, why don't you publish all that has occurred between the present administration and the Harvester Company during the past twelve mionths? Such information, if made public, would give the people an excellent opportunity to form a fair judgment as between the Roosevelt way of doing things and the Taft way of doing things. You owe it not only of doing things. You owe it not only this afternoon.

city, a member of the Democratic State Executive Committee.

On the ballot a blank space will be left for the voter to write the name of any other candidate preferred by him. The candidate receiving the largist vote in the primary will have the entire State delegation to the National Democratic Convention instructed for him, according to the plan adopted by the State Executive Committee. The plan provides that the executive committees of the various counties shall meet next Thursday, the day after the primary, to canvass the returns and to declare the result. The State Executive Committee will meet on May 19 to consolidate the returns for the entire State and to decide any contests that may have arisen.

his reading in the Senate last Thursday of a parody on the Apostles' Creed, purporting to state the political heliefs of Theodore Rooseveit. Rev. C. Ernest Smith, rector of St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, denounced Senator Williams's utterance as "a blasphenous travesty on those doctrines of the church for which in past centuries thousands and tens of thousands have cheerfully given up their lives. The pulpit of the Protestant Episcopal Church would be untrue to its traditions should it allow such an utterance to go unheeded."
